

CLYDE M'CLAIN

Accidentally Kills Self in Jackson When Pistol Goes Off.

Was Son of the Late John Mc-Clain, Resident of this County.

Mr. Clyde McClain, of this city, while descending the steps of his boarding house in Jackson Wednesday night, slipped and fell, causing his revolver to fall out of its holster and discharge, shooting him through the body. The proprietor of the boarding house hearing the shot rushed out front, found the young man and brought him in the house, where he died three hours later.

The people of Jackson were exceedingly nice to this young man and aided in every way possible in trying to bring about his recovery. The electric light plant there generally shuts down at 11 o'clock, but when the management was phoned the lights were kept burning all night without extra charge.

Mr. McClain was in Jackson in the employ of A. Dietz & Co., who have the contract for the erection of the new Hotel Jefferson. He was a son of the late John McClain, and was a young man of industry and splendid habits and had a host of friends in this city who will mourn his loss. He is survived by his step-mother, one sister and three brothers, Messrs. Elwood, Fay and Arch McClain, all of this county. The remains were brought to this city and interred in St. Thomas Cemetery.

Overcoat Taken For Debt.

One day last week a young man from one of our neighboring towns while in this city gave a cold check to one of our prominent young business men for four dollars which he had owed for some time. After the visitor went out of the store the Mt. Sterling man called up the bank and when informed that the check was "no good," proceeded to look up the visitor, found him and made him three propositions, to either give him the four dollars in money and the price of the telephone call, a nice new overcoat he had on or take his chances on getting a good "licking." The young fellow decided to part with the overcoat, so now the Mt. Sterling man is an overcoat to the good.

Guess who it was and you might be able to get an overcoat at a bargain.

For several days he has been able to walk about his farm and is gaining strength daily. By direction of his physicians he will not undertake to discharge the duties of his office for a few weeks yet, but as soon as his health will permit, we are informed he will begin work again and at the same time start an active canvass for re-election as County Judge.

Champion Corn Grower Dead.

Lester Bryant, of Warren county, champion boy corn grower of Kentucky, was found dead in his room in Washington, D. C., Sunday. Young Bryant was in Washington as a guest of the Department of Agriculture, together with a number of other Southern boys. The boy was a typical country boy and it is supposed he blew the gas out instead of turning it off.

Mr. Mason Hurt was rescued from the canal in Louisville Saturday morning by a patrolman in an unconscious condition and taken to the city hospital where he soon regained consciousness, but was unable to tell how he came to be in the canal. ## MR. "BOB" MAKES HIT

Packed House Greeted Home Talent Show Thursday Night

Best Amateur Performance Given In This City for Years.

Mr. "Bob" given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church Thursday night was attended by a large crowd and the performance was a most creditable one. Among those who deserve special mention are Mr. Marvin Gay as Jenkins the Butler, Mrs. S. E. Spratt as Patty the Maid and Mrs. R. P. Thomas as Kitty. The play was a laugh from start to finish and unlike most home talent shows did not drag but was full of life and action from the time the curtain went up until the finish. Several splendid musical numbers were put on, the one eliciting the most applause being the "Boogie Woogie" by Miss Elizabeth Laughlin and a chorus of six girls. Miss Laughlin has a sweet soprano voice and her acting during the singing of this song would have done credit to a professional. The Minuet by the "babies" was one of the cutest "stunts" ever staged here.

After the performance the entire cast of "Mr. Bob" were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Stofor at Ringo's Cafe where a most delightful lunch was served.

Montgomery County Fair

Stockholders Meet.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Montgomery County Fair Association held Friday very little business was transacted. Mr. J. H. Gillaspie was elected Vice-President and Mr. Allie Robertson was elected a director. No other changes were made in the officers. The directors adjourned without electing a President and Treasurer or a Secretary, or naming the dates for the Fair this year. The directors will meet some time in the near future when the above matters will be settled.

Aged Woman Dies.

Mrs. Barbara Elizabeth Elam, aged 71 years, died at her home in Morgan county, near West Liberty, Wednesday, January 15, of infirmities incident to old age. Besides her husband, Mrs. Elam is survived by six children, one of whom is Mr. Olie Elam, of this city.

COUNTY ATTORNEY

Makes Second Big Collection of $1000 on Old Bond Debt.

Collected $1159.79 Last Year and More Yet to Come.

County Attorney Earl W. Senff has collected from Harlan Sexton, Sheriff of Menefee county, and paid to C. T. Hazelrigg, our county treasurer, the sum of $1000.00 on the old railroad bond debt. There will be about $500.00 more paid this year as soon as the Sheriff can collect outstanding taxes and make settlements of his accounts. Last year $1156.79 was collected and about the same sum each year will be paid by Menefee county until the judgment of the Court of Appeals is satisfied, which amounts, with interest, to approximately $6000.00. The money must be used in paying off the outstanding bonds. Last year four $1000.00 bonds were called in and cancelled and in a few years it is hoped by the county authorities that the people will be relieved of this burden of taxation, which our citizens have been paying "since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary."

Daughter of Ernest Elkin

Reported Dead—Still Alive.

Miss Bernice Elkin, of Winchester, but formerly of this city, and a daughter of Ernest Elkin, who was killed while in the employ of a construction company in Winchester, who was reported to have died in a hospital in Philadelphia, is still alive.

Miss Elkin, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Rutledge, left recently for Philadelphia to consult a specialist, who advised an operation, which was performed a few days ago. She stood the operation nicely and was reported to be doing well, when a telegram was received announcing the young lady's death. Arrangements had been made with an undertaker in Winchester to take charge of the remains and flowers had been purchased, when a second telegram was received stating that Miss Elkin was still alive. It seems that she was a victim of suspended animation and was thought by physicians and nurses to be dead.

Miss Elkin has relatives in this city who will be glad to learn she is still alive and has a splendid chance for recovery.

Win Prizes.

Mr. W. C. Moore won the $50 given away by Geo. W. Anderson, Jr., at his blacksmith and repair shop Saturday afternoon, the lucky number being 10,110. Mr. Robt. L. Vanarsdell won the second prize, $25, the winning number being 10,308.

No You Don't.

You never hear any of J. B. White's customers complaining about the high cost of living. Why? Because they are getting good family flour at $2.40 per sack, best granulated sugar at 5¢ per pound, dry salt bacon at 12¢ per pound, fresh ground coffee at 20¢ per pound and so on down the line, for cash.

For Sale Privately.

Franchise Refused

Kentucky Utilities Co.

The Fiscal Court of Clark county, after a long session Monday, refused to grant a franchise to the Kentucky Utilities Co. to erect poles and string wires in Clark county, by a vote of 5 to 2.

The Magistrates objected to the clause in the franchise which stated that the county was not to have the right to require the company to extend their lines to the roads which the court should stipulate.

The representatives of the company then agreed to insert a clause in the franchise whereby the residents of any road could, by paying the expense of the construction, have the power extended to them, and the money which they had advanced would be rebated to them in 10 per cent. reductions on their power bills. This concession was not, however, satisfactory to the majority of the Magistrates.

Wrong Man.

Chief Gibbons received a telegram yesterday from Detective Stanley Brown, who was sent to Lawrenceburg Monday for Shirley Harris, an escaped prisoner, that the man held by the authorities there was not the man wanted here. Harris is charged with stealing the brass fittings from the hose and apparatus at the engine house.

Buys Residence.

Mr. E. J. Shackelford bought of Mr. L. L. Bridgeforth his residence on Holt avenue at a private price. This property was taken in on a deal for 110 acres of land that Mr. Bridgeforth purchased from Mr. Shackelford.

JANUARY COURT

Prices Were Much Higher Than In Many Years.

About 1,500 cattle on the market, medium quality. Best 1,000 pound steers brought from $6.75 to $7.10, yearlings from 6c to 7c, heifers from 5¢ to 6c, oxen from $135 to $145 a pair. Thomas Fitzpatrick purchased 26 head of 900 lb., cattle at 6¢. Sam Wheeler sold to Lois Thompson 40 head of 1,050 lb., cattle at 7c. Weil, of Lexington, bought a large bunch of steers and oxen at prevailing prices. Numerous other sales were made to various buyers with the demand for yearlings and heifers strong. The prices were higher than for years. The mule market was very active and sales were readily made from $125 to $225 per head. Fletcher Mann, of Lexington, bought 10 head of good mare mules from Jno. D. Greenwade at $225 per head. Mr. Mann also bought from J. B. Cecil a pair of 4-year-old sorrel geldings at $425; Black & North, of Frankfort, bought a number of mules from $200 to $225 per head and 1 pair of black mare mules at $440; Caywood & McClintock 6 mules from $190 to $210; Thos. McClintock 5 mules from $150 to $200; Hord Armstrong, of Flemingsburg, secured a bunch of mules and horses at prices ranging from $125 to $200 per head. Quite a large crowd at the pens and considering the high prices the sales were very rapid.

Judge Turner's Chickens Win Prizes.

Judge Ben Turner sent two cockerels and two pullets to the Boyd County Poultry Association meeting, held at Ashland January 13 to 18, and won first and third with cockerels and first and third with pullets. Considering that the show was a very large one, there being over 600 chickens in the contests, the Judge is very proud of the record made. Judge Turner has always been very successful in showing his Rhode Island Reds, having never yet failed to get a part of the money.

Caldwell College Gets ### Handsome Gift.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Caldwell College an announcement was made through Dr. Robert Mackenzie, of New York City, Secretary of the College Board of the Presbyterian church, that a gift of $50,000 had been made to the institution by Dr. Nathaniel W. Conkling of New York, in honor of Mrs. Florence Morgan, a life-long friend who was deeply interested in the education of young women. One of the stipulations is the name of the institution shall be changed to the Kentucky College for Women.

Recently announcement was made that a fund of $100,000 had been donated to the college and since that announcement $75,000 additional has been secured from different sources. A comprehensive plan for the improvement of the college in physical equipment and advanced educational standards has been adopted. The funds on hand will be utilized in the erection of new buildings to be begun at once.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

A mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by P. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

WORTH WHILE.

Life worth living? You can bet. 'Spite of all its woe and fret, There's the fun of being young With the world before you flung; There's the fun of being old, Having watched the play unfold; There's the fun of dreaming, too, And of making dreams come true; There's the fun of sun and rain And of respite after pain; There is friendship, there is love (Sweetest thing I'm singing of), Laughter, music, light and mirth And the loveliness of earth; There's the fun of work and fight, Setting evil things aright, 'Spite of sorrow and distress— 'Spite of toil and weariness— Life worth living? Well, I guess.

Titanic Claims Total More Than $10,000,000.

A flood of petitions for damages through the loss of the steamer Titanic filed last week included one from Mrs. Irene Wallace Harris, who claims $1,000,000 for the loss of her husband, Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager. This is the heaviest of the 279 claims so far filed. Mrs. May Futrelle, of Scituate, Mass., asks $300,000 compensation for the loss of her husband, Jacques Futrelle, author. The claim of Mrs. Lily B. Millet, widow of Francis D. Millet, the artist, is $100,000.

United States Judge Hand extended the time for filing petitions on claims to February 11th. The claims amount to more than $10,000,000, but the White Star Line contends that its liability is limited under the United States statutes to less than $100,000, the value of recovered records and passage money.

IDLE THOUGHT.

There are days for idle dreaming When the world is void and still And the morrows promise tenure Of the yielding, placid will; When the present holds no shadows And the past is vague and far; When the heart forgets its bruising And the wounds betray no scar.

There are idle days unnumbered When the vision is enthralled, When the hearing lists to voices That in former days have called And renewed in timely musings To repeat in phrase and tone What must come to waken power In the realm of dreams alone.

There are idle days and moments When an inspiration flares, In ambition's name to quicken Thoughts that haunt us unawares, And they pass beyond the yearning To fulfillment and the end; Had one idle moment faltered Time could not let its loss amend.

Amend Parcel Post Law.

Among the inequalities of the parcel post law is one—excluding books and printed matter from its use—they still have to pay by the ounce almost as much as more favored articles do by the pound. The author of the bill recognizes the injustice and is proffering an amendment to remedy it. The express companies will carry books as cheaply as the post department, which by the discrimination puts a tax on knowledge. Surely if sausage, brick and such things can go by mail, books should. They are much easier to handle and occupy less space for their weight.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

Mt. Sterling Citizens Testify for Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Mt. Sterling citizen, given in her own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders of any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine.

A Mt. Sterling citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Laura Willoughby, 17 Strother Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "It is a pleasure to tell of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills as they always give entire satisfaction. I had pains through my back and kidneys and at times I was dizzy and nervous. At night I was restless and mornings was weak and tired. A neighbor advised the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply from Duerson's Drug Store and their use gave me great relief. I now feel better in every way."

EZRA'S HARD LUCK.

It Began With His Name and Ended on His Tombstone.

Tom McNeal of Topeka was talking to Abe Peters about luck, so Tom reports. Tom thought there was no such thing as luck, but Abe protested.

"Take the case of Ezra Boll," said Abe. "To begin with, think of his name. A name like that is hard enough luck to prove my contention, but Ezra lived up to it. When he was a baby he fell into the horse trough and was almost drowned. Then he got hold of a can of concentrated lye and it took them four weeks to bring him round. He fell out of an apple tree when he was six and broke both arms and a leg, and just as he was hobbling round again he went on a watermelon stealing expedition with six other boys. The others got away, but the dog caught Ezra and chewed him up until the farmer came along and he put on finishing touches with a harness trace. He fell in love when he was seventeen, spent all he had for buggy rides and candy for the red cheeked object of his adoration—and she shook him and married another. A mule kicked him and broke six ribs. He had a lot of hogs and they died of cholera on the identical day when hogs reached 9 cents a pound, live weight. He had a big crop of wheat and a hail-storm came along and ruined it one hour after his hail insurance policy had lapsed. He got $500 to make a payment on his land, put in the bank and the bank busted.

"A cyclone wrecked his house and harn and crippled all his family except his mother-in-law, who escaped unhurt. He bought four gold bricks and took some counterfeit money in pay for two good horses.

"Then he died. When they were taking him to the cemetery the team pulling the hearse ran away going down hill and scattered the remains of Ezra along the side of the road.

"In the course of time his family marked his grave by an appropriate stone on which the stonemason got the date of his birth wrong and misspelled his name in two places.

"And still you say there is no such thing as luck!"—Saturday Evening Post.

A LIVING TOWER.

Captain Meeker's Unique Idea in the Building Line.

What is known as the "living tower," says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, stands on the very summit of a hill more than 200 feet high at Camp Meeker, a summer resort in Sonoma county, Cal. It was Captain Meeker, an old pioneer, who first conceived the idea of building a tower on the very summit of a high hill near his hotel, and while looking around one day for a suitable site he found four young redwood trees standing about twelve feet apart, representing a perfect square. The trees were each about 150 feet high. Fifty feet of each top was lopped off, and the work of building six stories was then commenced. From top to bottom the living tower was a hundred feet high.

Each floor is about 12 by 12 feet and rests on strong timbers, the ends of which are securely attached to the four trees by means of steel cables and bolts. So strongly was every part braced that the whole structure does not move as much as one would naturally suppose, even when rocked by heavy winds. In the building great care was taken by the workmen to cut only the branches growing on the inside of the square, and the trees were not chopped, mutilated or weakened any more than could be avoided.

Leading up from each story are broad stairways, so that one may ascend and descend with ease and perfect safety, while around the edge of each floor are strong railings to prevent accidents. Since this tower was completed the trees have grown and flourished just as well as before. This living tower is claimed to be the only one of its kind in the world.

Paint of Our Forefathers.

A white lead and oil paint, the finish of our forefathers, is easily and economically mixed from the raw materials as it is needed for use. With each 100 pounds of white lead mix five gallons kerosene oil, one pint turpentine and one pint drier. An allowance of 50 cents for the labor of mixing gives eight gallons of white paint for about $13.15, or $1.14 a gallon. Two coats of this, or better three, after coating knots and planks, supply places with orange shellac, provide a good finish either outdoors or in.—Country Life in America.

Conkling's Invective.

Roscoe Conkling, like John J. Ingalls, was a master of invective. Conkling it is said, once upon a time in summing up to a jury thus attempted to belittle the testimony of a rummy faced, knob by nosed witness for the opposition: "Methinks, gentlemen, I can see that witness now, his mouth stretching across the wide desolation of his face a sepulcher of rum and a fountain of falsehood!"

Sweetland Resigns as ### Athletic Director.

Director of Athletics E. R. Sweetland, of Kentucky State University, handed to President H. S. Barker, of the university, his resignation from his position in the institution, to take effect now or in June, as the university authorities see fit.

When seen, Mr. Sweetland admitted that he had resigned, but refused to discuss the matter or his reasons for his resignation. It is understood, however, that his resignation is due to embarrassments and incompatibilities growing out of the recent trouble following the burning of the office of Prof. F. Paul Anderson, at the university, for which R. S. Webb, Jr., and Thomas H. Butler are now under indictment, and of the charges brought by Mr. Webb against Mr. Sweetland, on one of which he was dismissed in Justice Dadd's court and on two others of which he was indicted by the grand jury at the same time. It is also understood that Mr. Sweetland wished to save the university any possible embarrassment which might grow out of these cases.

Mr. Sweetland came to State University three years ago and has coached the teams with the exception of last year, when he was engaged in a similar capacity with Miami University, at Oxford, O. Under his guidance the University teams have been uniformly successful, and he has made himself very popular with the students and athletes of the university during his stay here. Before coming to Lexington, Mr. Sweetland coached athletic teams at Cornell, Syracuse, Colgate and Ohio State Universities.

Mr. Sweetland announced no plans for the future, and would not talk of his plans.

The resignation of Mr. Sweetland, handed to President Barker, is as follows:

"Lexington, Ky., Jan. 15, 1913. President H. S. Barker, Kentucky State University.

"My Dear President—I hand you my resignation to take effect immediately or in June, as you may elect.

"Very respectfully,
"E. R. SWEETLAND."

BUSINESS DIPLOMACY.

What "Sorry, but That is the Rule," Cost One Bank.

"The making of rules for the carrying on of business is a good proposition, but ironclad rules sometimes injure as much as they help," a New York banker declared recently. "Here is an illustration:

"One of the depositors in my concern had saved many years. His bank book, tattered and yellow, was full to the last lines with entries that extended practically since his wedding day. And when the time came that he must take out a new book he asked to save the old one."

"Sorry," the teller said, "but it's a rule of the company that when a new book is issued we must take up the old one."

"But you don't understand," the depositor argued. "That old book is nothing to you. It is worth a whole lot to me. Many's the night my wife and I have sat up with that, looking over the entries, planning for the future when all the additions we had planned would be made in it. We've seen our little account grow from $10 to $100, from $100 to $1,000. His voice grew a bit husky. 'Why, that little book has been a sort of Bible to us. It has represented our every hope in life. We have planned by it, dreamed by it. May I not keep it?'"

"The clerk smiled sympathetically, but shook his head."

"I cannot violate one of the ironclad rules of the establishment," he answered, and the man turned away.

"A month went by, and then one day a check for the man's entire balance came into the bank. He had transferred his account to another institution. The matter came to my attention some way, and I heard the story of the torn and tattered bank book. 'That night, in the little bulletin which we send around our place, was a notice that was written by me:

"Hereafter there shall not be an ironclad rule in this bank that is too strong or too heavy to resist breakage. Kindly consult the cashier on matters of diplomacy in the future."—New York World.

WOMEN OF FRANCE.

They Are the Bosses Even Though the Men Won't Admit It.

The women of France have been described as the backbone of the French nation. The remark applies more to the middle class than to the aristocracy. The bourgeoisie, truly a helpmeet to her husband, is in fact more often a manager and as a rule efficient in that capacity. It is she who carries on the little shop, while her husband, perhaps nominally the head, runs errands at her bidding. Not that the Frenchman would admit that; nevertheless it is the truth. It may be, too, that he has business interests elsewhere as well. This he may work for the railway or for some other enterprise.

In Paris one enters an attractive little picture or jewelry shop on the Rue de Rivoli. A smiling Frenchwoman comes forward to enquire the tourist into paying all sorts of fascinating things he really does not want. It is the same at the shops where are sold kodak supplies and postcards—not a man to be seen except as a purchaser.

If one ferrets out a little hardware store and goes in to buy rope or nails or anything of that sort, there may be a man, the proprietor probably, to hunt for just what is desired, but even then his wife sits at the desk, guarding the money drawer and keeping a close watch over all that is happening.

Likewise at the butcher's madame sits in state at the receipt of cash. The case is the same at the grocer's, where she gives out change and keeps the accounts. No mere hireling is to be trusted with such weighty matters.

All customers should stop to greet the mistress of the shop as they enter and must on no account forget their "Bon jour, madame!" on departing. These little courtesies are among the essentials with the French, and if the foreigner forgets or neglects them he frequently fares badly.—London Spectator.

The Human Voice.

One's surprise at the fact that no two persons' voices are perfectly alike ceases when one is informed by an authority on the subject that, though there are only nine perfect tones in the human voice, there is the astounding number of 17,592,186,044,415 different sounds. Of these fourteen direct muscles produce 16,383, and thirty indirect muscles produce 173,741,823, while all in co-operation produce the total given above.

Unconscious Sarcasm.

A Scotch visitor to the Carlyles, in Cheyne row, was much struck with the soundproof room which the sage had contrived for himself in the attic, lighted from the top, and where no light or sound from outside could penetrate. "My certes, this is fine!" cried the old friend, with unconscious sarcasm. "How ye may write and study all the rest of your life and no human being be one bit the wiser."

Not to Be Bitten.

Andrew Cherry, the actor, once received an offer of an engagement from a theatrical manager who had not previously treated him very well. "I have been bitten by you once," he wrote. "and am resolved that you shall not make two bites of A. Cherry."—London Telegraph.

Consistent.

"That big fellow certainly does not in a very silly way." "Perhaps, being stout, he thinks to match his conduct ought to be fat."—Hartford American.

California Man Wants Mt. Sterling Girl for a Wife.

The following letter was received a few days ago, and will probably be of interest to some of Mt. Sterling's fair ones:

Editor Advocate, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky:

Dear Sir:—Would you kindly announce through the columns of your paper that I should like very much to enter into correspondence with some young lady of Mt. Sterling. I should regard it as a favor as I am real lonesome out here and am looking for a nice little Kentucky girl, preferably one of high school or college education. I am 23 years of age and since leaving college have been editing a newspaper. I am inclined to be partial to Southern girls.

While in college I was an athlete of ability, playing on the foot ball eleven and was a member of the track teams.

Having lived a sane life, I am perfect, physically, and possess a lovable and affectionate disposition. Please let me hear from some little Mt. Sterling girl real soon.

THE LURE OF GOLD

Romance and Tragedy of the Old Bonanza Trail.

A ROAD TO WEALTH AND CRIME

It Led to the Richest Deposits of Gold. In a Relatively Small Territory, Ever Discovered—Days of Strenuous Life and Frenzied Lawlessness.

The Bonanza trail began at Fort Laramie, Wyo. It ran east of the Owl Creek mountains, west of the Big Horn mountains, in a northwest direction to Livingston and Bozeman, then forking to the present Helena and Virginia City. In war and Indian department annals it is known as the Bozeman trail. Immediately, however, it was given the more romantic name, and for the best of reasons. It led to what were the richest deposits of gold in a relatively small territory, that the world had ever seen.

Out of Alder gulch and Last Chance gulch, within 200 miles of each other in Montana, was taken, in ten short years, considerably more than $500,000,000 in pure gold. It was anybody's fortune, and the wonderful luck of the California gold diggers a few years before roused men to brave every hardship for these prizes.

It did not matter at all that these gulches were 2,000 miles from the nearest railroad and that other gold fields were far easier to reach. Here was the great El Dorado, and without a quail the gold seekers hurried into the unknown territory, defying Red Cloud and every other Indian, outlaw, renegade and holdup man.

How many lives were sacrificed along this trail to wealth will never be known. All that is certain is that there never was another chapter in the world's history like this. The long road into the mysterious country and the settlements of mining camps grew up almost in a single night. There were only five men in the little party when Bill Fairweather "washed" the first pan in Alder gulch and made a discovery even more wonderful than any in the prime days of California or even in the later era of the Klondike.

Two years later Alder gulch, at one of the Bonanza trail's two ends, was among the most picturesque places in the country. The world was ransacked for men and women to give performances at the theaters, to offer free entertainment to the patrons of the various resorts. The gold hunters, gorged with prosperity, wanted amusements. Fine restaurants were opened and food brought in at great expense from beyond the seas. The smallest money was a twenty-five cent pinch of gold dust, taken from a pouch. It bought less than a copper cent does in any part of the United States today.

Meantime an unending stream of people poured into the new country. It is estimated by some that 90,000 in all took the trail at Fort Laramie.

The days of the trail were those of frenzied lawlessness, and many are the picturesque stories that have come down. Over the big road disputes about cards were of daily occurrence. The man who started an argument did so with the knowledge that it was his life or the other man's, for he was calling into question the "honor" of the "shark." Swindlers sold "mines," fought with their proposed victims and killed without compunction.

Armed robbers ran off stock, stole horses from one class of immigrants and sold them to another. As the horse was the sole means of transportation and valuable beyond human life "hoss stealing" was set down by the "districts" as a crime punishable by death. There were few courts, and such as there were were miles from the trail. A jury would hence be at once impounded among those present, the man tried and if found guilty hanged to a tree without ceremony.

Hotels flourished and were prosperous beyond imagining, for every one spent money, and there was much flaunting. In the higher grade establishments beverages were served in cut glass; champagne was common. Every resort was crowded with people. The newcomers frequented these places in quest of information, paid 25 cents for a glass of beer made from barley grown by the ex-Confederate soldiers at Bozeman and sold to the Virginia breweries for 8 cents a pound, and not enough could be received to supply the demand. Table board cost $7 a day for the very cheapest, and if one slept in a chair in the hotel lobby at night, when the rooms were all rented, he paid $1.50 for the privilege.

Gold was the only medium of exchange. A pinch of it, between the forefinger and the thumb, as has been said, counted 25 cents. There would be a tendency with some men to take just a little bit more. When that tendency was noticed in a man he was given hours to leave town—and it was seldom over two hours. The wise man did not stand on ceremony or protest—he "rammed" in camp vernacular.

The newspapers of the city sold for 25 cents a copy, red hot from the press, and full of news of lynchings, new diggings, "clean ups," "hold ups," "hot men" and gossip of a breezy character. Ham and eggs to order cost $2.50. Eggs were worth 50 cents apiece and an ordinary meal of deer or buffalo meat, with potatoes or coffee and bread, was never less than $1.50. A man was very poor to get down to fare so coarse as that.

It made no difference what a man might have been back in "the states"; if he was "on the square" in Virginia he was accepted at par.—F. J. Arkins in Harper's Weekly.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County Office . . . . . $10.00
City Office . . . . . 5.00
No Announcement will be inserted until paid for.

We are authorized to announce the following gentlemen as candidates before the State Primary, August 2, 1913, subject to the action of the Democratic party, to-wit:

FOR COUNTY JUDGE
WILLIAM O. CHENAULT, SR.
FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK
KELLER GREENE
WM. A. SAMUELS
FOR SHERIFF
W. F. HORTON
HARRY F. HOWELL
FOR JAILER
JOHN F. RICHARDSON
O. M. WILLOUGHBY
FOR ASSESSOR
W. B. GREENE
JAS. T. BARNES

MR. W. F. HORTON.

At the earnest solicitation of prominent Democrats from every precinct in the county, Mr. W. Frank Horton, of the Camargo neighborhood, has concluded to ask the party to which he has always belonged and for which he has zealously labored ever since he became of age, to honor him with its nomination for Sheriff.

Mr. Horton is at present Trustee of the Jury Fund, under appointment from Judge Allie W. Young. Several years ago he served the district, of which Montgomery county is a part, in the Legislature and in every position in which he has been placed he has proven himself to be an honest, courteous and efficient officer. To know him is to like him, and that he will make a strong race no one doubts. This is especially true today, since the people are realizing, as never before, that they do themselves a great injury by selecting inferior men for office. Because one is a clever man, or needs the office, is no reason for giving it to him.

As we have always advocated that competency should be given first consideration, it gives us pleasure to present his name to his fellow-Democrats.

As his deputies he has chosen Mess. Jas. W. White and Neal Guilfoile. Cleaner or more popular men could not be found anywhere and we urge a careful consideration of the claims of this excellent trio by the voters of Montgomery county.

MR. JOHN F. RICHARDSON.

With his sanction, we place at the head of this column the name of Mr. John F. Richardson as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Montgomery county. He is widely known by our citizens, having served them as Deputy Sheriff and Assessor in the past, and we challenge any man to say he ever abused the official power given him by doing a dishonorable thing.

We have often said, and re-assert it as an indisputable fact, that the people have as good government as they deserve. The officers of a city or county reflect, in a large measure, the character of its citizenship.

We are not moralists, neither do we pose us being "holier than thou," yet we do think we need energetic, sober, christian men in office. Such a man is John F. Richardson. Being kind hearted and generous, if elected Jailer he will treat the unfortunates entrusted to his keeping humanely; being gentlemanly and courageous, he will be courteous and of service to the courts, and being a man who appreciates the friendship and confidence of his fellow-citizens, he will make an official of which all may be justly proud.

MR. JAS. T. BARNES.

Mr. James T. Barnes, of the Howard's Mill neighborhood, belongs to a large family of Democrats who have always been content to serve in the trenches, without reward, or hope of reward. They now think, however, that their turn for recognition is at hand, hence Mr. Barnes authorizes us to present his name as a candidate for the office of Assessor.

He is well acquainted with values of real estate, is a good business man, honest and industrious and if elected Assessor promises to endeavor to discharge his duties in a manner that will meet the approval of all fair-minded citizens, at the same time do justice to the county and State.

In considering the man for whom you will vote in the Assessor's race, we ask that the claims of this worthy gentleman and loyal Democrat be not overlooked, in the State Primary August 2nd, next.

MR. HARRY F. HOWELL.

This is essentially a young man's age. On all sides, in every line of human endeavor, one sees young men forging to the front and taking first place in the affairs of life. We believe in young men; we admire their youthful vigor, energy and self-confidence and rejoice in the fact that one is no longer required to outlive his usefulness before being placed in positions of honor and responsibility.

The subject of this sketch, Mr. Harry F. Howell, is a young man of excellent habits, of wide family connection and a gentleman whenever and wherever found. While a novice in politics, he has made it plain that he is in the race for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff in earnest and that he must be reckoned with on August 2nd, next.

As deputies, he has chosen Messrs. Wm. Cravens (present Assessor) and Robert M. Montjoy, of Howard's Mill, than whom there are no more deserving men in our county.

They promise, if elected, to continue the affairs of the office at its present high standard and authorize us to say they will be ever grateful for the support and influence of the Democrats of old Montgomery.

MR. O. M. WILLOUGHBY.

For several years Mr. O. M. Willoughby served the people of Mt. Sterling, with general approval, as a member of our police force and later as city warden or jailer. The duties of county jailer are therefore familiar to him in all their details, hence Mr. Willoughby has concluded to ask his party to honor him by making him its standard-bearer on August 2nd, next.

We believe a good index for the future performances of a man in office, is his past record, as an official, and so far as we are aware, Mr. Willoughby has nothing in his record about which he need be ashamed.

In this issue we have expressed, in a somewhat limited way, our views of the duties of this office and the character of man we think should fill it and have no hesitancy in saying that if Mr. Willoughby is honored by election, he will discharge his duties in a manner that will reflect credit upon himself and his county.

It is with pleasure we present his claims to the Democrats of Montgomery county and urge for them favorable consideration.

LOOSE LEAF MARKET

Strong-Monday's Prices
At Least 3 Cents
Higher

Nearly 700,000 Pounds Sold Here
During the Past Week.

The tobacco market during the past week continued strong. The prices Friday were a little off owing to the tobacco being too wet. Monday the prices on all grades were at least three cents stronger and the farmers were well satisfied with the prices received. The Farmers' house handled about one-half million pounds during the past week, while the Burley house handled close to 200,000 pounds. The streets and roads leading to Mt. Sterling have been literally lined with wagons during the past week and both houses have been selling capacity floors at every sale. The Farmers' house report the following sales Monday: E. R. Little, 11,070 lbs., at $16.98; Tandy Chenault, 295 lbs., at $16.58; Chas. Dale, 2,690 lbs., at $17; Thos. Crouch, 2,585 lbs., at $16.59; D. H. Webster, 3,013 lbs., at $18.36; Chas. Philipps, 2,720 lbs., at $18.76; D. B. Ratliff, 1,295 lbs., at $19.10. The floor average was $18.57 with two new buyers present and the bidding was spirited. There were 165,200 pounds on the floor.

The Burley house reports the following sales as among some of its best during the past week: Jeffries & Denton, 3,685 lbs., at $18; Howell & Scott, 1,650 lbs., at $16; Walter Griggs, 1,000 lbs., at $15; Bittinger & Howell, 1,900 lbs., at $15; E. R. Little, 2,025 lbs., at $13; J. H. Blount, 3,895 lbs., at $21.60; Snelling & Stewart averaged $13; Gip Denton averaged $17; John Gatewood averaged $15; J. W. Barnes averaged $14.50; Asa Crouch averaged $16. Both houses report the market much stronger this week than last.

National Banks Elect Officers.

At a meeting of the directors of the Traders National Bank, held last week, Maj. D. J. Burchett was elected President to succeed Mr. J. M. Bigstaff, deceased. Major Burchett is a fine gentleman and a splendid business man and is bound to add strength to this already strong institution. Mr. A. S. Hart was elected a member of the Board of Directors in place of Mr. J. M. Bigstaff, deceased. The following gentlemen now compose the board of directors: Major D. J. Burchett, President; Messrs. J. T. Highland, Vice President; A. A. Hazelrigg, J. L. McCormick, W. Lois Thompson, L. L. Bridgeforth and A. S. Hart.

The Montgomery National Bank made no change in its directorate re-electing Mr. J. G. Winn, President; Messrs. R. C. Gatewood, C. K. Oldham, G. H. Strother and Pierce Winn Directors.

The Mt. Sterling National Bank re-elected their old officers with the exception of Mr. Steve Pieratt who was elected a director to succeed his late father Mr. J. M. Pieratt who died since the last meeting of the directors. The board is made up as follows: Mr. W. S. Lloyd, President; Mr. B. F. Cockrell, Vice President; Messrs. J. G. Trimble, C. D. Grubbs and Steve Pieratt Directors.

There were no changes made at the Exchange Bank of Kentucky as the meeting to elect officers does not come until May.

The people of Montgomery and the surrounding counties are fortunate in having four such strong and reliable institutions at their services and the confidence and esteem in which the officers and directors are held by their legion of patrons is worthily placed.

PETTICOATS AND LINGERIE BARRED

They Are Soon to Be Discarded
By Women of Fashion.

A bas underwear, petticoats, belts, stocks and dress linings.

Enter the union suit, the corset and draped hobble front as the sole apparel of the 1913 woman of fashion, Empress Josephine of 1813 come to life again.

This is a startling innovation coming after so many startlers, but Max Aron, secretary of the Dressmakers' Union of America, and otherwise high in authority on women's dress, declares it is here.

"The woman of the future will find three garments sufficient," said Aron. "Exclusive of shoes and stockings, she will wear a union suit, the lower part in the form of tights, a small corset of comparatively few bones, and she will wear a close-fitting, one-piece dress, with very slight or even no lining. Some women today are wearing only these three garments."

Mr. Aron went calmly on: "I believe that the underwear industry has fallen off 75 per cent. in the last three years. Lacy, ruffled lingerie is now a drug on the market. Underwear is dead."

"The change didn't come all at once. It began ten years ago. The flannel petticoat went first. The shirtwaist then struck the knell of dress lining. Then it was discovered that unlined skirts could be built. Seven years ago the one-piece dress suddenly came to the front. Then went belts and collars. When the hobble skirt came in three years ago the under-skirt went out. Women soon stopped wearing three petticoats, then decided two was too many, and finally took to wearing tights. Everything is toward simplicity. Four dresses and a hat can now be bought for what one complete outfit once cost. Even the hats are untrimmed."

Another Killing in Winchester.

Didley Dee, a workman employed by George Bros., railroad contractors at Winchester, was shot to death Saturday night. Walter Williams is accused by officers of doing the shooting. A hunt for Williams is in progress. The ball penetrated Dee's heart and his death was instantaneous. He is said to have been under the influence of liquor and to have provoked the assault. Both Dee and Williams are negroes. Dee was accused of killing a man in Jackson a year or two ago, but was acquitted.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE THE MARK OF CAIN

Genesis 4:1-15—Jan. 26.

"Whoever hateth his brother is a murderer."

—1 John 3:15.

THE first tragedy of Earth was disobedience to God—the eating of the forbidden fruit. The next generation saw murder resulting from jealousy. Since the Bible teaches that our first parents were perfect, the image of their Creator, the question arises, How could such noble parentage bring forth a son of Cain's evil disposition?

Cain was not degenerate in the present acceptance of that word. Undoubtedly he was a great man in many ways. But he was birth-marked, as all are, with selfishness. After his parents were expelled from Eden, after they began to toil with sweat of face, Cain was born. The period of his gestation was surely one of much mental distress to his mother. As she murmured respect—sacrifices of Abel and Cain.

Eden, she marked her child with discontent and selfishness. By the time Abel was born, doubtless our first parents had become reconciled to their fate. We are in this not justifying murder, but taking a sympathetic view of the murderer's case, as God did. He condemned the sinner, and arranged for his punishment; but none of his messages to the murderer indicated hatred. So parents, correcting their children, should allow no sentiment to control their hearts contrary to the best interests of their children. So the laws of men in dealing with crime should be as severe as seems necessary in the interests of society, but should never be vengeful. They should recognize that mankind were born in sin. The vengeance of the law should be sympathetically enforced, to warn others against evil-doing.

With great satisfaction we note that our prisons are being turned into reformatories. Judges in pronouncing sentence, especially against murderers, are often fatherly and tender. The feeling that terrible responsibility is associated with the taking of human life, even judicially, is right. A certain weakness, however, manifests itself in opposition to capital punishment. This, we believe, results from misunderstanding the Divine Word.

In the case of Cain, God especially prohibited the execution of the criminal. Nevertheless, the Divine Law stands: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." The careful observance of this Law, with a spirit of kindness and sympathy, but with proper indignity, seems necessary to the preservation of order. Weakness in this respect encourages criminality, and furnishes an excuse for mob law and violence.

General misapprehension of the Divine Plan has led up to the weakness which opposes capital punishment. This wrong view led us to believe that the murderer passed at death into endless torture, and we hesitated to plunge a fellow-creature into such misery. Bible students are now learning that this delusion came from the Dark Ages. Our forefathers, imagining God to be worse than themselves, twisted Scripture to support their errors.

The Bible teaches that mankind fall asleep at death, to awake after Messiah establishes His Kingdom. The Bible statement is that all, good and bad, go to one great slumber-house, the tomb—Sheol, Hades. Messiah so loved the world that He gave His life for the redemption of mankind. As soon as He shall have selected His Church, He will establish His glorious Kingdom, open the prison doors, set at liberty the captives of death, and bring all to an accurate knowledge of the Truth.

"Sin Crouched at the Door." Cain was jealous because God manifested favor toward Abel's offering, while rejecting his own. Cain should have rejoiced with Abel, and brought a similar offering. God warned him that his spirit of selfishness was sin, crouching at the door of his heart, and advised him to conquer this heathen spirit. Cain heeded not the warning.

Abel's blood cried, figuratively, to Divine Justice. All injustice cries out to God. Sooner or later, the Divine penalty will be meted out. But the judgments of the Lord are left for the Great Mediator to execute during the Millennium, the world's Judgment Day. Only those begotten of the Holy Spirit are now on trial for life or death eternal!

Brother-Haters are Murderers. The Great Teacher declares that brother-haters are murderers in God's sight. In other words, a spirit of hatred is a spirit of murder. Alas, how many of the professed followers of Jesus harbor a spirit of hatred, and sometimes manifest it in anger and other works of the flesh and the devil!

Christians are to fight against the imperfections of the flesh. They must strive against the fallen nature, and cultivate the fruits and graces of the Holy Spirit. If they manifest the murderer's spirit, they will lose the "prize" of joint-heirship with Christ.

Baseball Business.

The American League has engaged Frank Chance, the baseball player, for three years at a magnificent sum of $120,000. Forty thousand dollars a year to direct a baseball team is going some, but the league that pays it doubtless knows what it is doing. When we consider that this is only a small part of the enormous expense of the League, it seems a wonder that it can pay it, but it knows that those who love the sport will foot the bill and it does not reckon in vain. Baseball has gotten to be one of the big businesses of the country and millions are spent by the fans that multiply even faster than the population. Those who love the game acknowledge its insidiousness and say the more they get the more they want of what is sport to them, but seriousness to the managers and hard work for the players.

The True Cosmopolitans.

We are not an isolated nation. We are more at one with the old countries than they are ever at one with each other. They are neighbors; we are their brothers. There is an upheaval somewhere in the world, and the citizens of France or Finland may become involved. Some of us always do. Few of the heroes of history are unhonored in our public places. In one city stands a monument to Kosuth, "Erected by the Hungarians resident in America"; in another a statue to Garibaldi, "Erected by the Italians resident in America." These wistful people come and come, bringing their hives and penates and setting up their national heroes in our public squares. War breaks out in the Balkans, and the little man who blacks our shoes is going out to fight to the finish for his country's honor. There is war five thousand miles away, and the woman who sells us oranges is kissing her husband good-bye for the last time. So does the pulse of the world beat in our city streets.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies in That Cough and Weak, Worn-out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Grabill, of Strasburg, Va. says: "Grippe left me weak, run down and with a severe cough, from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.

W. S. Lloyd, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

"The Servant in the House."

Only a cast of exceptionally intellectual players, trained in the hard school of experience, could do justice to the difficult roles in "The Servant in the House," the sensational successful and epoch-making play which is to be presented at the Tabb Opera House on January 29th. There is not a "straight" part in the play. Each character is strongly individualized and vividly drawn human beings, and only players capable of assuming difficult roles can meet with any success in the play. It is a remarkable company which Merle H. Norton is sending to this city for the presentation of this drama, a company headed by Victor E. Lambert and which includes no less than three players who have been stars in their own right.

CORRESPONDENCE.

PLUM LICK.

(By James Kendall.)

Millard Wade has leased his farm to Kirkpatrick & Clay for two years and will move to Cincinnati.

Branch Boardman sold his uncle John Boardman a fine walk-trot horse at a fancy price.

William Dudley cleaned up the remainder of tobacco on Plum Lick the other day at prices ranging from 14 to 20 cents. Ed Todd sold at 20c straight.

Tobacco has advanced considerably since William Dudley made his first purchase here some weeks ago at from 10 to 14 cents. Tom Johnson of North Middletown, came along in the big automobile and introduced him, at the same time wanting to know if the people had ever seen anything like that before. Mr. Johnson sold to same party at 11c and now he could get 20c. It was a dear ride for Tom and he is about to take his bed.

Mrs. J. Walter Rice, of near North Middletown, was hostess at one of the most delightful dances of the season one evening recently. It was given in honor of her two nieces, the Misses Ragland, of near Winchester. There were twenty-eight dancing boys and eighteen dancing girls and all kept time with the music from 7 to 4 o'clock the next morning. Refreshments such as apples, bananas, ice cream, cake and candies were served at midnight. It was a jolly crowd and all report a most enjoyable time.

STOOPS.

(By B. M. Goodan.)

Jas. Robbins moved last week to the farm he rented from Jesse Highland, near Somerset.

Early sown wheat is looking extra well.

The wet, muddy weather has been pretty severe on cattle feeders.

Mrs. James Leach, Sr., is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Allen Sams moved last week to R. E. Tipton's farm.

The roads leading to Mt. Sterling have been lined the past week with loads of tobacco.

Misses Edna and Emma D. Hamilton visited relatives at Owingsville last week.

Every crop of tobacco in this section; with about three exceptions, has been sold.

Up to the present date old January has been a "warm number."

More moving has taken place this month, than usually takes place in March.

The six-weeks-old baby of Chas. Neal, who lives on A. S. Hart's farm near here, was found dead in bed Thursday morning.

E. O. Garrell, of Winchester, has bought the Mrs. Sarah Thomas farm lying on the old Springfield road just over in Bath county and will move to it March 1st.

No interest whatever was manifested in the committee election in this precinct Saturday.

The many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Death of Thomas Love.

"The Servant in the House."

Mail orders are now being received for the forthcoming engagement of "The Servant in the House" at the Tabb Opera House on Wednesday, Jan. 29th. Because of the peculiar nature of the play, and the special appeal which it makes not only to ordinary theatregoers but to a large circle of persons whose visits to the playhouse are rare events, it is expected that there will be a great demand for the seats for the performance given here.

Mail orders will be filled in the order of their receipt. They should be accompanied by a check to N. A. Wilkerson, Mgr., and a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Patrons should specify the price, preferred location and number of seats desired.

The company which is to present "The Servant in the House" is the greatest ever sent out with a play of this character and numbers among its members no less than three actors who have been stars in their own right.

Walter Jones in "Baby Mine."

William A. Brady, Ltd., presents "Baby Mine," Margaret Mayo's comedy success, at the Tabb Opera House, Friday, Jan. 31st, with Walter Jones in his original character of "Jimmy" and the New York Company.

"Baby Mine" has to its credit one solid year's run at Daly's Theatre, New York. It is the radiant and glorious fun and hilarity that obtrudes at every point throughout the play that holds an audience throughout, and justifies the verdict that "Baby Mine" is the most eminent mirth impelling comedy the present generations of theatre patrons have seen. Most enthusiastic admirers of the play, whose opinions are considered those of experts, emphatically assert that "Baby Mine" is the very best comedy.

It is not incredible that a tireless and continuous run of legitimate enthusiasm occasioned by an earnest and forcible demonstration of realistic possibilities, utterly human, is responsible for the world wide approval of this immense comedy success. The human interest in it touches and concerns all mankind, and when it is of a character that invokes the close and faithful attention of a complete audience, without pause, strictly by reason of its deep fun and laugh-making qualities, its universal popularity and success is readily explained.

The personality of each principal character, as elucidated in the play, reaches the "right spot" with everyone in the audience, which, with the theme of comedy, makes it entirely fascinating and attractive at every moment.
